Oct, 2015

R U Adventurous??? Come explore New England during the Fall colors. Sound interesting? If so, join a fun group for a Photographic Adventure. We will meet up in Boston Area. Then we will head out and explore many of the wonders of the Fall in this part of the country. We will travel daily through the many colorful and ever changes areas of the New England states that show off with the Fall foliage. Two different weeks are available – first the Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont region. Then down to the Virginia and West Virginia area. Each trip is 5 days (4 nights).

The “Master of the Picture Perfect Postcard” will give us special tips, talk about composition, exposure and lighting, answer our questions and provide an enjoyable adventure for everyone attending. Make the pictures you take “keepers” without laboring away on the computer! Go to www.wghartshorn.com to see William’s biography, gallery and other upcoming workshops www.PhotographicAdventurers.com.
