2015

R U Adventurous??? Come explore the wildflowers of Southern California Sound interesting? If so, join a fun group for a Photographic Adventure. We will meet up in LA in the Morning, then carpool if possible. We will go where the wildflowers are showing the best. Mother Nature will be our guide. We will head out and spend the day getting some images of Wildflower. Depending on where we go you might want to stay overnight. As it gets closer to time we will provide more information.

The "Master of the Picture Perfect Postcard" will take us to some of his secret locations, give us special tips, talk about composition, exposure and lighting. He will also answer our questions and provide an enjoyable adventure for everyone attending. Make the pictures you take "keepers" without laboring away on the computer!
